

TRIPLE THREAT ARTIST PROGRAM

What age is eligible for this program and what experience is necessary to participate?

Performers as young as 4 years old can participate in this new program. No experience is necessary and classes are offered by age.

Do I need to be enrolled in a dance class at RCDC to participate?

The Triple Threat Artist is a stand alone training program. However it pairs well with recreational or fundamental dance classes at RCDC.

What will my performer do in this program?

Below is a brief summary outlining the topics of class each month.

September: Finding Your Voice – A crash course for both singers and non singers who are looking to develop vocal technique and discover their authentic voice.

October: Acting through Song – learning the basics and build the foundation for acting through song

November/ December: Holiday Spectacular Prep and Performance

January: How to Build Character – Ever been in a group piece or solo and never really understood how to build a character? This course encourages the artist to take beautifully choreographed 8 counts to performance level with character development

February: Audition Prep – How to shake off those Jitters and Audition like a Pro

March: Monologue/Scene Study – If you've ever wanted to learn how to perform a monologue or scene like your favorite actors or maybe even write your own, this course is for you.

April/May: Recital Show Prep and Performance

What is the TRIPLE THREAT ARTIST program?

Our NEW Triple Threat Artist program offers weekly group training classes for acting, singing and dancing. Students will gain knowledge, skills and confidence to add to their performance toolbox as a developing artist.

Will the Triple Threat Artist Program have performance opportunities?

Yes, this new program will perform at both our Holiday Spectacular on December ? and our annual spring Recital.

When does this program begin?

The Triple Threat Artist Program will begin in September, right after Labor Day and continue through our spring Recital in May.

What is the investment to participate in this program?

The investment for this program includes your annual Registration Fee, Monthly Tuition, Holiday Show Tuition ($175) and Recital Tuition($210). A $15 monthly discount will be given to participants enrolled in our dance program.

No other discounts apply.

Who will lead this NEW program of study at RCDC?

Meet Kiona! Kiona is well versed in vocal and acting coaching, as well as somatic movement for actors and musical theater performers. As a professional performer she has graced the regional and international stage. She has created children's programming at several regional theater companies and we are excited to have her join the RCDC team!

Q&A